

Camden County Clerk Katie Bishop

Kathryn Bishop was appointed County Clerk in January 2009. She began her career with Camden County in August 2005 when she was initially hired as Deputy Clerk.

As County Clerk, Mrs. Bishop provides support for the Camden County Board of Commissioners. Her duties include preparing and publishing agendas and board meeting notebooks, preparing minutes of all board meetings and assuring compliance with the Open Meetings Act. She serves as the official custodian of all County records including contracts, leases, resolutions and ordinances. She serves as the Official Records Custodian for the Board of Commissioners and provides requested information through the Open Records Act. Also, Mrs. Bishop provides access and maintains the Camden County Records Retention Facility.

In her work as a County Clerk she most enjoys interacting with the public and she strives to always provide exceptional customer service. She is a member of the Georgia County Clerks Association (GCCA), and serves as the GCCA District 12 Coordinator.

Mrs. Bishop is a lifelong resident of Camden County, and is married to her husband Brian Bishop. She has a twelve year old son, Zachary and a seven year old son, Alexander. She loves spending time with her family, volunteering with community initiatives, and she has a strong commitment to serve the citizens of Camden County.
