

County Extension Coordinator & 4-H Agent- Amber Bishop

Amber has been the 4-H Agent in Camden County for 9 years and has worked with local 5th graders and also the middle and high school clubs once a month. She recently took the additional responsibility as the County Extension Coordinator/Department Head in October of 2013. Amber has seen the benefits of the 4-H program for youth and is passionate about promoting the benefits of leadership, citizenship, public speaking, community service, and life skill development in the county.

Prior to moving to Camden County, Amber worked as the Program Coordinator/Event & Education Planner for Georgia T. Bagby State Park in Fort Gaines, GA. She earned her Bachelor's Degree in Wildlife Resources and Master's Degree in Agricultural Leadership from the University of Georgia.

Amber is originally from Fitzgerald, GA and currently resides in St. Marys.

About the Camden County Cooperative Extension: A joint program with the county and the University of Georgia utilizing the five staff members to provide research based information to the citizens from the University of Georgia. The staff consist of an Agricultural and Natural Resources Agent, Jessica Warren; 4-H Program Associate, Robert Castleberry; Extension Secretary, Kathy Strickland; and grant funded VISTA volunteer Sarah Newby; in addition to Amber Bishop.

Camden County Cooperative Extension
912-576-3219
www.ugaextension.com/camden