

Camden County Solid Waste Authority Director, Lannie Brant

Lannie grew up in Savannah, Georgia and upon finishing school, he enlisted in the United States Navy, Seabees Branch. Returning home in 1970 after completing two tours in Vietnam, Lannie decided to settle in Camden County.

He worked in various fields before accepting a position with the Camden County Board of Commissioners as their Fleet Maintenance Superintendent in 1985. Only two years later he had the opportunity to become the Director of the Solid Waste Department.

Lannie is a nationally certified Manager of Landfill Operations (MOLO) through the Solid Waste Association of North America (SWANA), Georgia Chapter. He has been a member of the SWANA for 27 years and within that time has only missed two meetings. In 1992, Lannie became a State certified landfill operator and became involved in teaching the required certification classes which are held twice a year at the University of Georgia. He is an elected member of the SWANA board serving two terms as president and is currently in his second term as treasurer.

In 2014, Lannie received the Solid Waste Association of North American Life Member Award. Through the years, he has been recognized for his efforts in working to protect and improve the environmental quality of life for the residents of Camden County.

Lannie and his wife, Janice, have been married for 44 years and have two children and one granddaughter.
