

Camden County Planning and Development Eric Landon, Director

Eric Landon, Director of Planning and Development, is a graduate of Georgia Southern University. He holds an undergraduate degree in Political Science and a Masters of Public Administration. While at Georgia Southern, Eric completed an internship with Effingham County, Georgia.

He has 12 years' of work experience in county planning with Nassau, Glynn and Camden Counties. For 7 of those years, Eric worked as a transportation planner for the Brunswick Metropolitan Planning Organization. He came to Camden County under a contract with the Coastal Regional Commission in July 2014 and was hired as their Director of Planning in December 2014.

Eric spends his free time traveling. He has been to five continents hiking through some of the world's highest elevations, including the Himalayas in Asia, Mt. Kilimanjaro in Africa, and the Andes in South America.