Mission

The Camden County Animal Control Division is committed to the highest performance standards, ethical conduct, truthfulness, and moral behavior in our work with people and animals.

Scope

Public Service - Animal Control Officers impound stray animals to relieve nuisances and prevent them from harming themselves or others.

Education - Animal Control Officers work with the Humane Society and other agencies to establish standards for responsible pet ownership. They also educate the public through direct visits to schools, clubs, and civic organizations.

Enforcement - Animal Control protects animal owners, non-owners, and animals in our community through enforcement of state laws and local ordinances.
