“County agent takes home top honors at state association meeting”

Woodbine, GA – Camden County Agriculture and Nature Resources Extension Agent, Jessica Warren attended the Georgia Association for County Agriculture Agents (GACAA) Annual Meeting and Professional Improvement Conference November 7-9 in Cordele, Ga. at Lake Blackshear Resort and Golf Club. The GACAA Conference is a yearly gathering of extension professionals in which they are given a chance to be recognized for their superior service and achievements.

While there Warren was recognized with a “Young Professional Award” which she earned at the district and state level, and received the “Search for Excellence in Forestry and Natural Resources” at the state level. Warren also presented a poster on water quality programming titled Water Quality Education and Outreach Improves Coastal Communities. Warren’s poster won 1st place in the Extension Education Poster category at the state level and will go on to compete at the national conference in Utah this July.
