Steve Howard Reappointed to NACo Environment, Energy & Land Use Steering Committee

WOODBINE, Ga. – August 24, 2022 – Camden County Administrator, Steve Howard has been reappointed to the National Association of Counties (NACo) Environment, Energy & Land Use Steering Committee. NACo’s 31 committees, caucuses, task forces, and advisory boards help to inform national policy makers and solve problems impacting counties, boroughs, and parishes.

The Environment, Energy & Land Use Steering Committee is responsible for all matters pertaining to air, water, energy, and land use, including: water resources/management, stormwater, pesticides, air quality standards, solid, hazardous, and nuclear waste handling, transport, and disposal, national energy policy, renewable/alternative energy, alternative fuel vehicles, energy facility siting, electricity utility restructuring, pipeline safety, oil spills, superfund/brownfields, eminent domain, land use, coastal management, oceans, parks and recreation.

“It’s an honor to serve on this national committee with focus areas that impact every local government in the United States,” said County Administrator Steve Howard.

About NACo: The National Association of Counties (NACo) strengthens America’s counties, including nearly 40,000 county elected officials and 3.6 million county employees. Founded in 1935, NACo unites county officials to advocate for county government priorities in federal policymaking; promote exemplary county policies and practices; nurture leadership skills and expand knowledge networks; optimize county and taxpayer resources and cost savings; and enrich the public’s understanding of county government.
