New Medical Director for Camden County Fire Rescue

Woodbine, Ga. (December 15, 2014) - At the request of Camden County Fire Rescue (CCFR) Chief Mark Crews the Board of County Commissioners voted unanimously on January 9, 2014 to name Dr. Alan J. Wilson as the new CCFR Medical Director. Dr. Wilson currently serves with Southeast Georgia Physician Associates as a General Surgeon. He is a graduate of the Mercer University School of Medicine. Dr. Wilson served his internship and residency at the Medical Center of Central Georgia.

Chief Crews said Dr. Wilson's training as a surgeon and his dedication to public service are a natural fit with CCFR. " I am very pleased that Dr. Wilson agreed to accept this position. His professionalism and experience will greatly benefit Camden County Fire Rescue. His skill set meshes very well with what we do everyday."

Dr. Wilson has a long history of public service and currently also serves as a part time deputy with the Camden County Sheriff's Office (CCSO) and is a member of the CCSO Emergency Response Team (ERT).
