FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Camden County Employees Recognized for Excellence and Years of Service

WOODBINE, GEORGIA – December 11, 2017 – Camden County Employees were recognized for their years of service at a special ceremony on Thursday, December 7, 2017, that also included the announcement of two recipients of the Camden County Shining Star Award. Those recognized for their service included 38 employees that reached a 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, or 35 years of service milestones in 2017.

Captain Lisa Boyett

The Shining Star Award offers Camden County employees the opportunity to spotlight the great work being done by a co-worker, department, or team of colleagues. This award recognizes and illustrates excellence as a County value. All full and part-time staff, who have been employed at the County for at least one year, and are below the level of director, were eligible to be nominated individually or as a department or team. This year both an individual and a department were selected as the 2017 Shining Stars. Captain Lisa Boyett of Camden County Fire Rescue and the Camden County Public Works Department were selected as the 2017 Shining Stars.

The 38 Employees Recognized for reaching a service milestone in 2017, comprise 410 years of service to Camden County. These employees represent a wide cross-section of the duties and services performed for Camden County residents including: courts, general government, and public safety. These employees represent the knowledge, dedication, and service of all Camden
