FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2017 Showcase Camden County Photo Contest Winners Announced

WOODBINE, GEORGIA – March 7, 2018 – The Board of Commissioners is pleased to announce the winners of the 2017 Showcase Camden County Photo Contest. This year nearly thirty (30) entries were submitted throughout the following categories: Landscapes, Nature, People, and Transportation. One recipient was chosen from each category, and out of those recipients an overall winner was selected.

The winners this year are:

- Ted J. Barney - Landscape category and overall winner,
- Priscilla Krupp - Nature category,
- Kimberly Tank - People category, and
- Robby Drawdy - Transportation category.

All winners were formally recognized during the Board of Commissioner’s meeting held Tuesday, March 6, 2018.

“We are grateful for all of the submissions from local citizens in this annual contest showcasing the beauty of Camden County,” said County Clerk Katie Bishop.

The judges for this year’s contest were Camden County’s Deputy County Administrator Shawn Boatright; Purchasing Officer, Alethea Harris; and Director of Risk Management and Benefits, Mike Spiers. The winning photos will be on display at the Camden County Government Services Complex. The Board of Commissioners will use these photos in various promotions and publications, while appropriate credit will be given to the photographers when used.

About Camden County: Located in the extreme southeast corner of Georgia, Camden County truly is “Georgia’s Coastal Community of Choice.” Originally formed in 1777, Camden County is best known for its rich history, natural scenic beauty and Southern hospitality. Our vision is helping to make this the best place to live by preserving and enhancing the history and quality of life, while promoting smart growth and providing an efficient, effective and responsive government.
